Third Party Credit Card Authorisation

During the booking process if you have made any payment against the booking using a credit card whereby the cardholder is not part of the travelling party, we are required to have a written consent from the cardholder giving Cruise Guru authority to process the charge via a Third Party Verification Form. This is a common business procedure where an individual authorises a payment on their credit card when they are not utilising the service. This requirement prevents unwanted and fraudulent chargebacks that can hurt the relationship between a business and the travelling party. Failure to submit the Third Party Verification Form on time will cause the booking to be cancelled. If in the instance the booking is cancelled or a refund is to be processed on the booking, funds due for refund will be refunded to the original form of payment less any applicable administrations fees. To access this form please contact our team.

Cancellations due to Covid-19

Due to the continued uncertainty surrounding the time frames of the current government travel restrictions, some cruise lines are altering their refund policies, offering Future Cruise Credits in the place of cash refund or credit card refund if your booking is cancelled for any reason in the future. Due to this uncertainty if your booking is cancelled for any reason, Cruise Guru will not offer cash or credit card refund unless we have the refund back from cruise lines or other suppliers. Cruise Guru fees apply.

Cancellations

Please Contact Us should you wish to cancel your cruise. All cancellation requests must be submitted by email. Cancellations must be received no later than 2pm EST/EDT on a scheduled NSW working business day for booking to be cancelled that day. Cancellations received after 2pm will not be processed until the following NSW working business day. The cancellation fee amount will be advised by Norwegian Cruise Line once the cancellation advice has been processed by Norwegian Cruise Line

Onboard Credit or other promotional inclusions are not transferable between any cruises, including consecutive cruises and fellow travellers. Any promotional inclusions not used will be forfeited on conclusion of the cruise.

Future Cruise Credits (FCC)

A Future Cruise Credit (FCC), can be thought of as a gift voucher for a cruise line (though there are restrictions as to what this particular gift voucher (FCC) covers). It is usually given to a passenger for a cancelled or somehow otherwise affected cruise. The FCC amount is typically calculated on the base fare paid for the cruise, less any taxes, gratuities, port charges, value-adds (for example, drinks packages or Wi-Fi) and additional pre-purchased onboard or onshore items (like spa treatments or shore excursions). These additional items are usually refunded to the original form of payment.

An FCC is attached to an individual passenger's name and profile, and can only be used to pay for that specific passenger's future cruise.

Each cruise line and FCC issued has its own terms and conditions such as expiry date and charges it cannot be used towards which are typically deposits, shore excursions, taxes and onboard spending.

If your new cruise is more expensive than the value of your FCC, the difference will be required to be paid by the due dates. Depending on the conditions of the FCC and the cruise line, in the event your FCC is more than your future cruise, some cruise lines will allow the difference to remain as an FCC or the balance may be forfeited. An FCC can be

Minors and Children

Infants sailing onboard a Norwegian vessel must be at least six months of age at time of sailing. However, for voyages that have 3 or more consecutive days at sea, the infant must be at least 12 months old at time of sailing.

A minor is defined as an individual under 18 years of age at the time of embarkation.

A young adult is defined as an individual between the ages of 18 and 20.

Company policy dictates that a passenger under 21 years of age must be accompanied in the same or connecting stateroom by a passenger 21 years of age or older at the time of embarkation.

For passengers under the age of 18 travelling with an accompanying adult, who is not the minor's parent or legal guardian, a PARENT/GUARDIAN CONSENT RELEASE FORM \(PDF\) that authorizes the minor's travel and further authorizes medical treatment in case of an emergency must be delivered to a Norwegian representative at the pier during check-in. Failure to produce this letter at embarkation may result in boarding being denied, with no refund of cruise fare provided.

NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE & CRUISE GURU GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Note: Two people under the age of 21 may travel together in the same stateroom if they are a married couple and provide proof of marriage to a Norwegian representative at the pier before embarkation.

While at sea or in port the availability of medical care may be limited or delayed; all or part of the cruise may be in areas where medical care and evacuation may not be available. Fees and charges relating to medical services are charged at private rates and will be added to your shipboard account. In Australia, this will not be covered by Medicare or private health insurance and will need to be claimed through travel insurance (see travel insurance section).

Special Needs

If you require special assistance this should be advised at time of booking. A special accommodation requirement information form needs to be obtained, completed and returned to us. Once this is completed you will be contacted by the appropriate department to assist in making the necessary arrangements for your cruise.
